Secretary Curry said something should be done to make the Capitol as near fireproof as possible. In order to do this, he had estimated it would cost at least $100,000.

CAUSE OF THE FIRE.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 29.—It is pretty definitely settled now that the cause of the fire was poor electric wiring. Wires carrying 500 volts were stapled against the woodwork, so it is said. Jack Lawrence, the janitor of the building, says that he was standing on the second floor of the structure when he heard a crackling sound, and looking up, observed a flash of electricity which lighted up the entire structure inside. In a second, drapery in Hale's exhibit was ablaze, and soon a tongue of flames shot to the lofty cupalo of the building, fed, doubtless by illuminating gas, one of the pipes having been leaking badly for several days. In a minute or two the fire had gained such headway that the building was a seething furnace and doomed. The decorations of bunting fell almost immediately, making it impossible for those who broke into the structure to do any rescue work among the exhibits.

GOOD WORK DONE BY HON. C. C. PERKINS

Grass Valley People Appreciate Efforts of the Local Senator.

GRASS VALLEY, Sept. 29.—Senator George C. Perkins was accorded a highly laudatory plank in the platform adopted by the Republican County Convention, held here Saturday.

Ex-Senator E. M. Preston was chairman of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions, and when he presented the following it was warmly received and unanimously adopted:

"We commend the good work of our Senators and Representative in Congress in their earnest and well directed efforts to secure the enactment of laws for the promotion of the commerce and other material interests of the Pacific Coast. We are especially pleased with the efforts of our senior United States Senator, George C. Perkins, who has advocated and promoted the interests of our mines and miners with marked success and ability. His long experience and recognized ability in the halls of the United States Senate have secured for him influential positions on committees, thus enabling him to promote our interests far more successfully than any new man whom we might elect to that office, however able he might be. Under these circumstances his retirement from office would be little short of a calamity to our industrial and political interests. We therefore earnestly endorse his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate. We hereby instruct our nominee from this Assembly District to vote for the Hon. George Perkins for the office of United States Senator and to use all honorable means to promote his election. And, further, we respectfully request the State Senator who represents this county at the next biennial session of the State Legislature to aid in the re-election of Senator Perkins."

TRAGIC DEATH OF EMIL ZOLA, THE FRENCH NOVELIST.

Found Dead in His House From Asphyxiation—His Wife Saved in Nick of Time—Defective Stove Was the Cause of the Tragedy.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Emil Zola, the novelist who was born in Paris, April 20, 1840, died this morning.

Zola was found dead in his house from asphyxiation. His wife is gravely ill. It is said that the novelist's death was accidental.

3:10 p. m.—Zola was asphyxiated by fumes from a stove, the pipes of which are said to have been out of order. At the same time it is stated that there are indications of suicide.

Zola and his wife returned to their Paris home from their country house at Medan yesterday and owing to a sudden spell of cold weather here, he ordered the heating stove in his bedroom to be lighted.

The stove burned badly, but Zola and his wife retired at 10 o'clock last night and the servants, not hearing any movement in the apartment this morning, entered the bedroom at 9:30 a. m., and found Madame Zola lying on the bed inanimate.

Zola was lying half out of bed, with his head and shoulders on the floor and his legs on the bed. Doctors were summoned, but they failed to restore Zola to life. After prolonged efforts they resuscitated Madame Zola.

The rumor circulated regarding Zola's supposed suicide from poison was based on the fact that ejections supposed to have come from his stomach were found on the floor, but the doctors say they came from Zola's dog, which was also in the bedroom and which did not suffer from asphyxiation.

Zola dined with a good appetite yesterday evening, and the servants of the household ate of the same dishes. Nothing unusual was heard in the bedroom during the night.

Some workmen arrived at the Zola residence at half past nine this morning in order to make certain repairs in Zola's bedroom, but the servants had already become alarmed at hearing no sound from the room and decided to enter it, and burst the door open.

A slight odor of carbonic gas was at once noticed and the bodies of the novelist and his wife were found.

Zola had evidently been awakened by a choking sensation, tried to arise but was overcome by the fumes, which apparently escaped from the defective stove. The windows were immediately opened, doctors and a commissionary of police were summoned, and the utmost efforts were made to revive the novelist and his wife, but the former had already succumbed.

Madame Zola regained consciousness about noon.

She now lies in a state of complete prostration. An improvement in her condition is anxiously awaited in order to obtain further light on the occurrence.

A druggist, who was the first to arrive at the house in order to attend Zola and his wife, said:

"When I entered the bedroom, M. Zola was partly lying on the floor amid matter thrown up from his stomach. No special odor likely to cause asphyxiation was then distinguishable. The two victims, moreover, did not present exclusive symptoms of asphyxiation. Their faces were contorted and their lips were bloodless, but not violent in color."

Dr. Leyrand, who attended the victims, is quoted as saying in an interview published this afternoon, that the plate of the stove was still warn and the ejections came from a dog.

The prefect has ordered the city chemist to examine the bedroom in which Zola died, and has issued instructions that an analysis of his blood be made.

Zola had been resting from literary work since he finished his work called "The Truth."

The obituary notices pay tribute to Zola's high literary talent.

The Temps says French letters have suffered a loss which will be keenly felt.

The newspapers judge Zola's role in the Dreyfus affair according to political bias.

The Commissary of Police in a second report endorsed the medical opinion that Zola's death was accidental and due to asphyxiation.

"I think that the accident was caused by inhaling heavy carbonic gas, which lay mainly below the level of the bed. M. Zola and his wife were thus not suffocated on the bed. M. Zola was awakened by the effect of the gas and tried to rise, but he was seized with vomiting, fainted and thus fell to the floor, where he was suffocated by the gas. His wife was also overcome, but less so than her husband."

Emile Zola, journalist, novelist and man of letters, was born in Paris on April 2, 1840.

He was educated in a typical French school of the period, and graduated from the institution to enter a prominent publishing house of the capital city.

He soon quit this, however, to take up work on the staff of the Figaro. It was here that his writings first attracted public attention. His studies of low life in Paris, realistic to a point, at which the truth became almost disgusting, and written with a rare power of expression soon won for him a place as one of the foremost writers in France.

Later in his life Zola wrote a series of works, dealing with the official life of the second empire. It was these volumes which entitled him to stand in the rank of the truly great novelists.

Still later in his life, his connection with the Dreyfus case won for him a reputation throughout the whole world. His fearless examination into the evidence in the case, his avowed belief in the innocence of Dreyfus, and his equally open disbelief in the purity of the court's motives and judgments made him on the one hand an object of hatred, and on the other an object of admiration.

He was charged with libelling the government and found guilty, but no steps were taken toward carrying out the judgment of the court.

Zola stands today as the chief advocate of the realistic school in literature.

Among his works are "Therese Raquin," "La Ventre de Paris," "La Faute de l'Abbe Mouret," "Uns Page d'Amour" and "L'Assemoir."

The latter work, depicting the vice of drunkenness was translated into English in 1879 and created a sensation upon its appearance in the United States.

The method of Zola in obtaining studies for his hideous panoramas is interesting.

Donning a workman's blouse, he went down into the slums, and there saw what he wrote, and wrote what he saw.

He was both hated, admired and feared in France. His name will live in the French capital.

DEMOCRATS ARE TRYING HARD TO ARRANGE A PLATFORM.

LEADERS ARRIVE AT SARATOGA AND TALK OVER THE SITUATION—HAVE AGREED UPON A FEW PLANKS.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The arrival of former Senator Hill, Chairman Frank Campbell of the State convention, William Sulzer and other leaders, today gave rise to discussion over probable planks in the platform to be adopted at the State Democratic convention. It is learned that a tenative platform has been agreed upon, but it is said that some of its planks are causing much discussion.

William H. Russell, Jacob A. Canter, James F. Shevelin and some others are of the opinion that the platform should be brief and conservative, and, while arranging the Republican Party, should be so carefully constructed, as not to pledge the Democratic Party to policies which, if elected, it could not carry out without danger to corporations and individuals. So far the platform contains these planks:

Canals—A pledge for general improvement of the waterways at the earliest possible moment by bonding the State, avoiding direct taxation by abrogating the section of the constitution that limits the States' indebtedness.

Trusts—Advocating federal interference and control of the great monopolies that threaten the people by controlling the prices of "the necessities of life"; denouncing the "meat trust" and "coal trust" specifically, and alleging that they are the results of maladministration of affairs by Republican administrators.

Tariff—Calling for a revision of the tariff in the most complete form, taking the duty off such commodities as are necessary for public use, but protecting American workingmen; such protection is not inimical to the interest of the masses.

Philippines—Denouncing the acquisition of the Philippines and the continuance of military control, calling attention to the alleged lack of humanitarian methods in the conduct of the war and demanding freedom for the inhabitants.

Cuba—Accusing the federal government of failure to keep its promises in Cuba and in deceiving the people by announcing the independence for the island while still continuing military control.

The administration of President Roosevelt is condemned as "spectacular, undignified and vacillating."

The State administration is denounced for its conduct of State institutions and for extravagance.

The one plank that is testing the capacity of the leaders in their desire to avoid friction is the financial plank. Those who two years ago were insistent upon an endorsement of the Kansas City-Chicago planks are equally so now.

Representative Sulzer, Norman E. Mack and others who represented for years Mr. Bryan's interests here are insisting that the plank shall be outspoken, but the other side of the controversy, led by Senator Hill, is urging that as the so-called "liberal Democracy" of the State has already filed a certificate of nomination of an independent State ticket on a free silver platform, this convention should declare for the gold standard.

The only certainties in the list of nominees this morning were John Kuneen of Erie for Attorney-General and Judge John C. Gray for the Court of Appeals. It was believed last night that Edwin Atwater of Poughkeepsie was slated for the Comptrollership, but today a vigorous fight is being made for the place by the friends of Mr. Finch of Glens Falls. Mr. Atwater, who is a wealthy banker, has been the nominee of the party two successive times, and as he has contributed largely to campaign expenses, his friends believe he should have the chance again.

SURPRISE IN THE PARDEE CAMP.

New Committee of Twenty-five Will Manage the Oakland Man's Campaign.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The San Francisco Post tonight says:

As gracefully as possible the men who were appointed by Chairman Neff of the State Convention to manage Candidate Pardee's campaign will now retire to the rear.

A new "Committee of Twenty-five," to be called the Finance Committee, and made up of Pardee's friends, who have hitherto not been conspicuous in the management of the candidate's fight, will be appointed, and the names of the men thus distinguished will be announced during the next forty-eight hours.

This concession to Dr. Pardee and to the branch of the party which was ignored, apparently with intention, when the executive committee was named in Sacramento after the convention adjourned, marks the end of an attempt to deliver Pardee into the hands of those who voted against him in convention to the last, and then were given power by Neff to "run" their late opponent's fight before the people.

This new Committee of Twenty-five will practically supersede the executive committee, headed by Cutter, because it will be a finance committee. As such it will hold the sack that holds the campaign coin.

Money is power, and the Committee of Twenty-five will therefore be the real force likely to cut the most ice in this campaign.

The appointment of such a committee will be unique in California politics.

There is no precedent for such a body. The idea of creating it had birth in the fertile mind of a man who stands very close to Governor Gage and to the Administration in general.

Once proposed to Captain Cutter, it was received as a solution of the problem that confronted both Cutter's faction and Dr. Pardee's friends.

The problem consisted in a distressing lack of funds wherewith to boom and advance Pardee's fight.

Ignored and flaunted the men who hitherto have become most liberal and foremost in supplying coin for campaign expenses quietly put their bank books away and peacefully went about their daily business.

Of old it was money that made the wheels go around, and times have not changed in this particular.

The Executive Committee gradually began to observe things, through the millstone hole, and at length a great light dawned upon them.

It was at that time, just a few days ago, that the idea of a new Committee of Twenty-five, to be the finance committee of the campaign, was conceived.

The acceptance of the plan by the Cutter committee meant abnegation and surrender. It also meant a decent recognition of most important elements in the party, and the latter argument was not without weight.

With the concession made, and the Committee of Twenty-five appointed and really in charge of Dr. Pardee's fight, a new complexion is likely to be given the political chess board.

THEIR BUSINESS TO ROB GRAVES

Sensational Arrests Made in Indianapolis—Gang of Negroes Dug Up the Bodies.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 29.—The wholesale robbery of graves in the cemeteries about Indianapolis was brought to a close early today by the arrest of a gang of seven negroes.

Warrants also were issued today for a prominent physician, the demonstrator of anatomy of a local medical college in which two stolen bodies were found about ten days ago, an interne in the college and the white janitor of the college.

Rufus Cantrill, one of the negroes, made a confession and implicated the others.

He said the physician accompanied the negroes on several of the grave robbing expeditions.

The police say the operations of the gang were on a larger scale than any gang ever in the State attempted before.

Upward of one hundred graves, it is said, have been robbed by the ghouls during the last three months.

The detectives say the negroes were armed with shot-guns and equipped with horses and wagons with which to do the work.

The bodies were sold to different colleges which opened their winter terms within the last week.

The revelations made, the detectives say, are not only astounding, but horrifying.

They say that a complete investigation will probably show that even the graves on Crown Hill were desecrated by the ghouls.

Cantrill said that he and the other negroes visited Mount Jackson Cemetery almost every time anyone was buried in the place.

"We pretty nearly cleaned that place out," he said. "I don't believe that we have missed a body that has been planted there since July."

Cantrill said there were some graves that were not disturbed because the flowers and other articles that were on top were arranged in such a manner that the gang did not feel confident of restoring the graves to their former appearance.

DEMOCRATS AT BAKERSFIELD.

F. K. LANE AND OTHERS TALK TO THE LABORING MEN AT NOON.

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 29.—Franklin K. Lane, Isadore B. Dockweiler, A. J. Rosborough and W. E. Smythe arrived in Bakersfield on the Owl last night. Today the Democratic candidates visited Kern and addressed the workingmen at noon. The afternoon is to be spent in visiting different points of the city and meeting the people personally. Tonight a mass meeting is to be held in Armory Hall, and from indications it will be one of the most largely attended ever held in this city.

Mr. Lane and the other visitors were met at the station at midnight, and with Colonel Tim Spellacy of this city, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, who came on the same train, were escorted to the Southern Hotel by a committee of prominent Democrats, composed of T. J. Packard, secretary of the County Committee; Alfred Harrell, editor of the Californian; Charles Baer, Matthew S. Platz, candidate for Assemblyman, and Forest L. Alford.

Mr. Lane is in excellent health and spirits and expressed himself as well pleased with his trip in Southern California.

Samuel Butler, president of the Grass Valley Miners' Union, is also in the city, having arrived Saturday, and will speak at the meetings today and tonight.

He expects to order, at all these places, goods by the car load and the lowest limit to his order will be stock enough to fill fourteen cars, which, in itself, makes a very good train.

The firm of Kiel & Evans is one of the most successful which has ever been located here in their line of business. Since October of last year, they have sold twenty-two carloads of buggies and that immense stock has been disposed of in this city.

GRAND RALLY OF FRUITVALE REPUBLICANS

Col. Eddy Roasts a Disturber and Makes a Great Speech

John Sanborn's Good Work on Behalf of the Party.

ALL STAND BY REPUBLICAN TICKET.

One of the most enthusiastic political rallies ever known in Fruitvale was held there on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Fruitvale Republican Club. The hall was crowded to the doors to hear the three speakers of the evening who were J. R. Knowland, candidate for State Senator, R. C. Van Fleet and Colonel T. V. Eddy of San Francisco.

The former both delivered eloquent speeches which received enthusiastic applause, when Colonel Eddy took the platform and stated that he did not see the necessity for speakers to come from San Francisco to speak in Alameda county which was already solidly Republican and that it was difficult for him to enthuse in a speech when there was no opposition to rouse one to his best effort.

His remarks, however, were very eloquent, but later, when he was interrupted several times by a local agitator he rose to his very best effort and his hearers were treated to one of the best speeches ever deliverd in this county, interspersed with ridicule, sarcasm and diatribe that was simply marvelous, carrying his audience by storm and completely squelching his interrupter. When Col. Eddy concluded his address the audience rose to their feet with one accord and gave three rousing cheers for the speaker and the Republican party.

The club then adjourned and an impromptu reception was given to the speakers of the evening. The well-known Fruitvale Mandolin Club played several selections and a delicious punch was brewed into which was poured a liberal quantity of Mumm's Extra Dry.

Afterwards the Fruitvale Republican Drill Corps was reviewed. This club of young men was organized at the suggestion of John Sanborn for the purpose of bringing out the people on political occasions.

It has both a military and club organization, its officers being as follows: President, Arthur Dawson; secretary, Eddie Harmon; treasurer, Grayson Hinckley; Colonel, Carl Swenson; Major, Letcher Albright, and Captain, Clarence Sanborn. The boys march with the precision of old soldiers. Each wears a blue suit and white cap and carries a torch. They are preceded in line by an ammunition wagon containing bombs, rockets and red fire. They are accompanied by a drum corps of five pieces and have a handsome illuminated banner announcing the time and place of the meeting.

The idea takes well, for the boys have a good time and the people are attracted to the meetings in great numbers.

Upon leaving, Colonel Eddy expressed himself as anxious to speak again in Fruitvale in the near future.

THIS IS THE CHAIR THAT PRESIDENT McKINLEY PREFERRED

$14.00

At his Canton home, President McKinley spent many a quiet hour reading or writing in a rocker just like the picture above. These come in oak, weathered oak (the colonial dull finish) or mahogany, either in chair or rocker style, cane or leather seat. They make a chair with an interesting history, are very serviceable and comfortable.

IRISHMEN TO COME HERE.

LEADERS WILL ATTEND THE NATIONAL CONVENTION IN EAST.

DUBLIN, Sept. 29.—John Redmond, chairman of the Irish Parliamentary party, has summoned a meeting of the Irish members of Parliament for October 7, to program the coming session.

Mr. Redmond, the Catholic Bishop of Raphoe, the Most Rev. Patrick O'Donnell and Stephen O'Mara, as trustees of the National Defense Fund, have issued a manifesto to the Irish, urging the necessity for immediate and generous contributions to enable the United Irish League to combat the "incessant and unscrupulous assaults of the landlords' organization and of the castle, on public liberties."

Messrs. Redmond, Dillon and Davitt expect to sail for the United States October 10 to attend the National Convention of the United Irish League, which opens at Boston October 18.

See program, page 2, for Beatrice Fine Song Recital, Tuesday night, Unitarian Church.

CZAR IS SORRY TOWER IS GOING.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 29.—The Czar has expressed personally and through Count Lamsdorff, the Foreign Minister, his regrets at the approach departure of Charlemagne Tower, the Ambassador from the United State here, who has been transferred to Berlin, alluding appreciatively to the cordiality of the intercourse which he maintained with the Imperial government throughout his mission. General regret is also expressed in court circles and in society. Mr. and Mrs. Tower will probably go to the Crimea to bid farewell to the Czar.

MANEUVERS CARRIED OUT AT FT. RILEY

FORT RILEY, Kans., Sept. 29.—The maneuvers today were carried out as originally planned, the troops moved out in a steady downpour, which continued with but slight intervals throughout the morning. The military movements came as nearly toward presenting the picture of a battle as anything is likely to do throughout the entire two weeks that the troops are to remain in camp.

SHOT HIMSELF AT HIS LONELY FEAST.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—Dr. F. S. Coburn, formerly of Washington, D. C., vice-president of the Bonanza Mining and Smelting Company, shot himself while alone in a flat where he lived. It is not known exactly what caused him to take his life, though it is said his business cares have been the reason.

LABORING MAN TAKES HIS LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—A laboring man, as yet unidentified, visited a vacant lot at Folsom and Spear streets some time during the early hours of this morning, and shot himself to death. The police, after a cursory examination, announced that there was no evidence of foul play and the remains were taken to the morgue.

WOMAN IS NEARLY BURNED IN A FIRE.

Lost Control of Herself and Entered Burning Building.

J. H. M'Kinnon Comes to Rescue of the Fire Department.

M. MADDERN'S HOME IS DESTROYED.

A vacant lot on Summer street was being burnt over at 2 o'clock this afternoon when an adjoining house caught fire. It was the property of M. Maddern and was located just east of San Pablo avenue.

The fire gained headway rapidly and it was impossible to remove much of the furniture.

In the excitement during the fire Mrs. Maddern lost self control and insisted on burning up with the building and had to be restrained by force.

The house was burned down. It is a complete loss.

There was no insurance on the house or contents.

William H. MacKinnon loaned his team to the Fire Department and four horses pulled the engine up to the hydrant.

Benjamin Courant was burning the grass on the adjoining lots. He will put up a new building for Mr. Maddern to replace the loss by fire. In other words, he will pay for the damage.

'VARSITY WINS ITS FIRST GAME OF SEASON.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—The 'Varsity football team defeated the newly organized Alumin team Saturday afternoon on the campus by the score of 12 to 0. One touch-down was scored each half. The game was marked by loose playing on both sides. The Alumin team exhibited no spirit, apparently caring little whether or not gains were made either through them or by them. The 'Varsity fumbled at critical points in the game, in the first half losing the ball twice within five yards of the Alumni goal.

The line-up was as follows:

SUNDAY SERVICES AT BERKELEY CHURCHES.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—A novel service occurred last night at the North Congregational Church in this city. The pastor, Rev. Ben F. Sargent, devoting his evening service to answering a series of questions. The questions were: "Is Marriage to be Encouraged or Discouraged?" "How Ought Women to Dress and Behave in Church?" "Love's Portriat, Her Looks, Her Behavior, Her Rank"; Ought Christians to go to Law Against Christians?" "Resurrection Questions: Is It Certain? When? How? With What Body?"

At the First Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. R. L. Halsey, preached at both the morning and evening service. His morning topic was "Our Saviour." In the evening he preached from the text "Trust in the Lord."

Rev. C. K. Jennes occupied the pulpit morning and evening at Trinity Methodist Church. His subjects were, "Yea, Lord," "The Two Bold Facts of Christ."

Rev. Dr. Menton preached for the last time at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday. His subjects were, "The wondering Multitudes" and "Without Respect of Persons."

"The Recent Crisis in Armenia" was the subject of an address given at the Park Congregational Church by Antianig Azliderman of Marsavian, Turkey.

FAMOUS FOOTBALL PLAYER SECURES AMATEUR STANDING.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—"Locomotive" Smith, the famous bucking halfback of the University of California, was enrolled on Saturday as an amateur in the Pacific Athletic Association, thus giving him the right to play against Stanford in the inter-collegiate game on November 8th. The enrollment was made despite a protest from the Stanford manager, who claimed that Smith was a professional in that he received a salary for coaching Oregon. Smith had affidavits showing that he was a student in the University of Oregon at the time he coached its team, and further that the amount he received, $450, was all spent for legitimate expenses.

The fact that Smith will be allowed to play will strengthen the State University's chances greatly against Stanford. Smith was captain of the famous 1902 Freshmen team, which defeated the Stanford team 21 to 0. He later played half-back in the 'varsity teams which defeated Stanford 22 to 0, and 30 to 0, and the same position in the team which met defeat at Stanford's hands by the score of 5 to 0. Smith is counted as one of the greatest ground-gaining backs that has ever played upon the coast.

EMILE ZALA.

The Sanhedrim of the French Academy is known as "The Forty Immortals." They are supposed to be the greatest living lights of French literature, the selected aristocracy of French intellect and authorship.

Emile Zola is dead without ever having been admitted to the charmed circle of French scholarship. Yet how many of the names of the famed forty can be recalled by the average reader? Zola's name is familiar to readers of contemporaneous literature everywhere, and many of his books are readily recalled by thousands who scarcely know there is such an institution as the French Academy of Letters, which repeatedly rejected Zola's claim to membership.

It must not be inferred, however, that the French Academy is made up of mediocre authors or that the refusal to admit Zola was based upon a denial of his genius. On the contrary, Zola was ruled out of the Academy because of the character of his work rather than its artistic quality. The judgment of his literary compeers was that he dealt with ignoble materials and polluted the sweet waters of literature with the foul and turbid tide of the gutters and the sewers. Even those who denied him the right to sit in the circle of honor, admitted the graphic power of his description, his marvelous penetration of motive and the fidelity which he depicted the lives, habits and sympathies of the submerged tenth of France. But they said this was corrupting to the mind and degrading to literature; that it taught a lesson of pessimism and despair, and revealed aspects of human degradation that had better be left covered from the public eye.

There is some virtue in the contention, but posterity will pass it by as the futile verdict of prejudice. If the moral regeneration of France is ever to be accomplished, the works of Zola will be largely contributory thereto. His realism is coarse, but it is true to life, not sketched in delicate terms or dressed in fripperies to be gayer or less repulsive and abhorrent. His pen photographed the vices and degradation of his country and his time. He laid bare, with merciless hand, the social disorders of France—the ignorance, vice, crime, sordiness and hypocrisy of every-day life. That he did this with the intent to reform there can be no doubt. He did not strip the canker spots because he loved the sores or delighted to gaze upon them, but that a disease might be cured. If his works reveled in gross materialism, he was himself an idealist, an ardent lover of the pure [illegible] patriotic. A man himself free [illegible] vices, but not deceived by illu[illegible].

[illegible]hatever may be said of Zola's [w]ork his courage and his motives can[no]t be questioned. He struck at wrong [an]d injustice wherever he found it. No [ma]n drew more repellant pictures of [vice] and crime, and he assailed super[stiti]on and oppression with the daunt[less f]ront of a paladin. If he shocked [the w]orld with his pictures of wretch[edness] and misery, he did so that there [might] be less misery and wretched[ness] hereafter. If his stories of the ca[reer] of immoral women were unwhole[some,] they taught a lesson that is as old [as th]e human race and as true as Holy [Writ.] Wickedness never grew attract[ive] under his pen, for he presented its [ugl]y side to the eye.

[He] may have been a mistaken en[thu]siast, but posthumous criticism will [gi]ve him the place in the Hall of Fame [deni]ed him by the literary tribunal of [his cou]ntrymen. His reputation as a [maste]r of descriptive prose is secure, [and] his work promises to effect many reforms.

A PERSONAL MATTER.

[Th]e Democratic candidate for Gov[ern]or has cut himself off from national [iss]ues. He praises President Roose[ve]lt and disclaims any hostile design [ag]ainst the tariff. Nor does he assail [th]e Philippine policy of the Republican [pa]rty. He does not even criticize the [R]epublican administration in this [St]ate. Apparently he would narrow [th]e issue down to a personal question [be]tween himself and Dr. Pardee. In [oth]er words, he deliberately unloads [hi]s party and its platform in an effort to make the campaign a matter of personal equation. Taking the issue in the aspect he endeavors to present it, can anyone conscientiously claim that George C. Pardee is less able, less honest, less experienced or less gifted [wit]h administrative capacity than [Fran]klin K. Lane? Is not the weight [of e]vidence to the contrary? Now for [the] other side. the Republican Party [go]verning the State and the nation [wisel]y and prosperously. Why should [its] rule be exchanged for another [that] makes for different policies. If [Pa]rdee and Mr. Lane were exactly [equal] in capacity and integrity, the [choice] should still go to the former [becaus]e he represents those policies [which h]ave made this country the most [prosper]ous of any on the face of the [globe.]

[The e]ffort of the Democrats to make [a campa]ign issue out of Speaker Hen[derson']s refusal to be a candidate for [re-elect]ion has proved a boomerang. It [has serv]ed to show insincerity of the [Democra]tic attitude toward the tariff [and t]rusts.

[Mr.] Shortridge's show of being [a S]enator in Santa Clara [is] vaudeville—It's funny—

MITCHELL FOR ASSESSOR.

It would be difficult to find a man in Alameda county better fitted to fill the office of Assessor than John Mitchell. If any reason exists why he should not be elected it has not been made public. As a citizen and as a public official, Mr. Mitchell is without reproach.

When the Republicans nominated him for Assessor, it was conceded that they had named a candidate worthy of all respect, and a man qualified in every particular to fulfill the duties of the office.

Mr. Mitchell is a clear-headed business man, with exactly the right sort of experience to fit him for the work of assessing the county. First, he is a just and fair man, which counts for a great deal in fixing values on which taxes must be paid. Second, he knows what property is worth, and views the whole business of assessing and valuing property from the business man's standpoint.

Third, Mr. Mitchell has had six years' experience in the Board of Supervisors, of which body he is now chairman, and has become familiar with the details of the Assessor's office through sitting annually on the County Board of Equalization. As Equalizer he has always been intelligent and equitable, and has been strictly regardful of the public interests and equally averse to anything savoring of favoritism or unfairness.

Being just, competent and upright, and possessed of excellent business judgment, he is precisely the kind of a man every taxpayer and good citizen should desire to see elected Assessor. With him in the office the laws relating to assessments will be strictly enforced, and no interest favored or punished.

Mr. Mitchell's record as Supervisor is a full guarantee of his worth and integrity. He has always been a leader in urging road and bridge improvements, showing his progressive spirit. He has been careful of the taxpayers' money, standing at all times for economy and efficiency in the public service. Holding to the maxim that a fair day's work is worth a fair day's pay, he has construed it to work both ways. It means with him that a fair day's pay is worth a fair day's work. Thus he is square with the laborer and the taxpayer alike.

If citizens will candidly compare qualifications and records they cannot fail to be convinced that it is to the interests of the public that Mr. Mitchell be elected, as he will be beyond doubt. As his election is a practical certainty, the people of Alameda county are assured of an honest, economical administration of the Assessor's office for the next four years.

Stockton has our sympathy in her misfortune. But this sympathy is tempered by the conviction that she will speedily rebuild the burned district finer than it was before.

PRESIDENTIAL TOURS ARE PROPER.

Whether a President of the United States should "swing around the circle" as Mr. Roosevelt has been doing in New England is a question that has suggested itself to many people and newspapers. The Boston Herald, for instance, is not at all sure that such extended and hasty tours as the President is now making are consistent with the dignity of the great office he holds, and believes that "the President was never intended to be anything like a stump orator." Those who see in the recent accident at Pittsfield a warning of what may happen to a President who leads too strenuous a life, would also prefer to have the President journey less and only under conditions which insure his safety as far as this is possible. We do not agree with what seems to be the Boston Herald's contention that the President should hold communication with the people only by his message to Congress. There can be no doubt that there will always be occasions whereby means of a public address in some great center the President will be able to arouse the public as in no other way. The question of our relation with Cuba is one in point. Congress having deliberately declined to come to the rescue of that ill-treated island, and having at the behest of the beet sugar interests, the President is eminently justified in going to and among the people in order that justice may be done.—New York Evening Post.

REV. B. FAY MILLS ON THE FLYING MACHINE.

HE EXPECTS TO SEE GREAT THINGS IN THE FUTURE—MORAL ASPECTS OF AERIAL NAVIGATION.

Rev. Benjamin Fay Mills delivered a sermon at the First Unitarian Church yesterday on the subject: "Moral Aspects of Aerial Navigation." He said:

"Aerial navigation is a modern conception, being mentioned only once by the ancients, in the myth of Daedalus and Icarus. Hydrogen was discovered in 1766 and the knowledge of this "lighter kind of air," as Priestly called it, was utilized by the construction of a balloon in 1782. This form of transportation has now been so far perfected that Comte de la Vaulx has flown from France to Russia, 812 miles, in exactly 24 hours and has traveled 1193 miles in about 36 hours. But in the last decade, through the inventions of Maxim and Langley and Zeppelin and Santos-Dumont, a genuine air-ship has been constructed which combines the principle of the balloon with human power to direct its course, so that Santos-Dumont and now Stanley Spencer have perfected machines by which they travel against the wind and in any direction they wish. I believe the time prophesied six hundred years ago by Roger Bacon has now arrived, when man is to become the master of the air.

"This is in harmony with his other achievements. He surpasses the swiftest animal on land and now laughs at the idea of being outdone by the fish of the sea, through the application of natural forces to the products of his inventive genius.

"The greatest men who are best informed expect man to speedily navigate the air at his pleasure. Hiram Maxim says, 'Flying machines are sure to come in the near future.' Lord Raleigh, one of the greatest of scientists, says that he is disposed to agree with Maxim that it is 'mainly a question of some time and much money.' Santos-Dumont says, 'Within my life time, possibly within ten years, I expect to see aerial navigation an accomplished fact and passengers carried across the ocean between Paris and New York by airships.'

"Man has never been disappointed in any invention that has progressed as far as this. It is no more marvelous than other great achievements were in their day and it is literally 'in the air.' It has become almost a necessity for the intellectual and moral progress of the race.

"Now as for the moral results. In the first place, it would be reasonable to expect a speedy abolition of war. Tennyson's prophecy in Locksley Hall, of the 'Parliament of Man, the Federation of the World,' was based upon his anticipation of 'the ghastly dew from the nations' airy navies, grappling in the central blue.' It is hard to see how war could exist when an enemy could drop explosives from a dirigible air-ship upon capitols, cities, forts, vessels, and headquarters of commanders. The great statesman, Henri Rochefort, said recently, 'The day when it is established that a man can direct an air ship in a given direction and cause it to manuoever as he wills * * * there will remain little for the nations to do but to lay down their arms.' That day has now arrived.

"In the second place it will necessitate the abrogation of restrictive laws as regards commerce and individuals.

"Tariff laws concerning hundreds of the most valuable articles and anti-immigration enactments could no longer be strictly enforced.

"Still further, this would mean the end of monopoly in transportation.

"It would also facilitate intercourse and unite mankind.

"It would also lead to the increase of knowledge. Science now pauses at the door of the therical problems. She has investigated matters and found 'ether' and force. Inventions have always come along the lines the human mind was traveling at the time. What discoveries as to the constitution and causes of phenomena may come through man's mastership of the air almost baffle the powers of the imagination to conceive.

"I look also for a genuine moral advance. The material, intellectual and moral development of the world are not due to unrelated causes, but to one Great Purpose, that grows more comprehensible as man enters into his kingdom. This new conquest may be more than the harbinger of a real or spiritual advance, of a moral triumph, a coming into greater harmony with the inner forces of life and suggesting the coming day when man shall find a great principle lifting him into conscious union with his own higher powers to live in the upper regions of his marvelous nature.

"This is a great message of faith and hope. We are simply witnessing the outside vibrations of what is going on at the dynamic and purposeful center. A great destiny is pressing upon us and we are being carried forward by forces inestimable in power and purpose. Let us arouse ourselves to think, expect, live and act according to the greatest reach of our possibilities."

PLEADS GUILTY TO BICYCLE THEFT

John Perkins, who stole a wheel in Pleasanton about a month ago and was subsequently captured in Sacramento was sentenced to a year and a half in Folsom Prison by Judge Melvin this morning. He pleaded guilty to the charges.

AN AMERICAN MONTE CARLO.

At Saratoga a Gambling Magnate Will Install a "Big Game" Plant.

When Richard A. Canfield, the owner and conductor of the Saratoga Club, otherwise known as "Canfield's place," or the "big game," completes the changes and improvements to his property at Saratoga, he will possess the finest and most picturesque plant of the kind in the world, representing an investment of over $400,000. A recent purchase makes him the sole owner of an entire block in the very heart of Saratoga, bounded by East Congress, Circular, Spring and Putnam streets. It faces Congress Spring Park and Congress Hall, and is within a block of Broadway, Saratoga's leading boulevard.

With the aid of a landscape artist Canfield proposes to terrace and make a veritable garden of beauty of his park. Ponds, flower beds, etc., and other artificial improvements will greatly enhance the natural picturesqueness of the grounds.

Several years ago Canfield bought of Albert Spencer of New York the Club House property on East Congress street, and the long strip, including several wooden buildings, extending from that street through Putnam street to Spring street, which made him the owner of about one-third of the square. Subsequently he bought on Spring street the site of the burned Casino, the scene of several State Conventions and bicycle contests and other sporting events. This gave him control of fully one-half of the square. He was willing to pay a big figure for the remainder, the "Old Indian Encampment," as it was popularly known, which was owned by Chauncey Kilmer, the retired millionaire paper manufacturer of New York, but he wouldn't sell to a gambler. Since then Kilmer has died. Last winter, while Canfield was in Europe, it was bought in his behalf from the executors of the Kilmer estate for $45,000.

Immediately on his return from Europe Canfield began formulating plans for the development of his purchase, and work upon it has already begun. It will require some time, however, to fully carry out Canfield's magnificent ideas. Several large stables that occupy a portion of the block cannot be torn down until the leases expire, which will be inside of a year.—New York World.

WAS BURNED SAVING A WOMAN

CAPTAIN DONALD M'KECHNIE PUTS OUT FLAMES ENCIRLING WOMAN.

Captain Donald McKechnie of the ferry steamer Piedmont was badly burned last night while endeavoring to put out a blaze caused by a domestic, Mary Ryan, accidentally overturning a candle in her bedroom.

The first warning that there was anything wrong was a dense smoke which issued from the servant girl's room. An investigation showed the domestic's room to be on fire, the curtains and bed clothing having been ignited by an overturned candle.

McKechnie smothered the flames, which had nearly consumed the woman's garments, with a blanket. Mrs. Ryan was then carried out of the room, the captain returning to fight the flames. He was nearly overcome with smoke and was painfully burned about the face and hands.

Mrs. Ryan was thought to have been badly burned, but at the Receiving Hospital it was found that she had escaped with minor burns.

The couple were married in 1885. The wife gets $50 alimony for the support of herself and children.

RICHARD DEY'S TRUST ENDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Richard Dey appeared before Judge Coffey today and was finally discharged as trustee of the estate of Mrs. Teresa Fair.

It came out that Mr. Dey and John W. Mackay, lately deceased, so managed this estate that they were able to pay over to the beneficiaries $1,900,000 more than they would have received had there been an immediate distribution after the death of Mrs. Fair.

When Mrs. Fair died her estate was appraised at $4,200,000.

DEATH SUMMONS HOTEL MAN

Death today brought to a close the career of Marshall W. Willis, proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, 474 Ninth street. The deceased was in his seventy-fourth year and a native of Vermont. He had suffered from a complication of diseases for about eight years.

He was a pioneer in this State, reaching San Francisco in 1849. He was a musician of both ability and reputation, and for thirty-five years was leader of one of the best bands in San Francisco. At the same time he was connected with the hotel business. He moved to Seattle for a time and there ran with success a hotel which had 600 rooms. He came to Oakland four years ago and assumed control of the Arlington Hotel. He leaves a widow, but no children.

The remains will be cremated in Oakland Crematory tomorrow.

LOST SCHOONER IS AT LAST IN PORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The schooner C. A. Klose, which left San Pedro sixty days ago for Suislaw, reached her destination today. Nearly three weeks ago the vessel was spoken off this port and her crew begged for provisions. She was given some potatoes and flour and was pointed on her course again. About 25 to 30 days is an average time for the voyage she made, and her crew had not provided for a long trip of sixty days at sea.

WAITER ARRESTED FOR STEALING FOOD

After systematically stealing from his employers for over a month, Peter J. Castro, a waiter employed in the Gas Kitchen restaurant on Thirteenth street, was detected this morning leaving the restaurant with a basket on his arm containing groceries and canned goods belonging to the proprietors. An officer was immediately sent for and the waiter taken to the City Prison, where a charge of petty larceny was placed against him. To Chief of Police Hodgkins one of the proprietors of the restaurant stated that they had been missing groceries and other goods from their pantry but it was only today that suspicion was directed to Castro.

They were represented by Attorney O'Brien, who asked that their cases be continued until September 30th, when their pleas would be made. It was so ordered by the court.

THE SINGULAR CASE OF MRS. JENKS.

Mrs. Mahala Jenks, an estimable married woman residing in Neosho county, Kan., awoke from an afterdinner nap one day with a loud shriek.

She had dreamed that something terrible had just happened, or was about to happen, to her father, a farmer in Illinois.

So strong was the impression upon her that she looked at the clock and noted the hour, firmly convinced that her dream was a reality.

Two days afterward Mrs. Jenks received a letter from her father written on the day which she had her dream, conveying the news that everybody in the family was well and he hoped these few lines would find her enjoying the same great blessing.—Chicago Tribune.

BOWLING GAMES ON LOCIAL ALLEYS

SOME INTERESTING CONTESTS IN WHICH LOW SCORES ARE MADE.

Final arrangements are being perfected for the big bowling tournament which is to take place on the Oakland Bowling Alleys on Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. Great interest is being manifested generally by the bowlers and indications point to a large tournament, as many entries have already been received.

Oakland was represented by two clubs in the American tournament in San Francisco on Saturday evening. Though the San Jose clubs took first and second place, the Oakland clubs made a good showing with the best clubs of San Francisco.

Low scorers were the order of the event as new pins were used. Eagle Club—J. Berquest, 158; P. Nelson, 129; M. Golcovich, 119; L. Campbell, 184; S. Gemmell, 145. Total—735.

Athenian Club—G. G. Kennedy, 151; W. H. Bernhisel, 143; C. A. McDonald, 120; H. Anderson, 130; W. T. Woods, 157. Total—701.

Recent high scorers on the Oakland alleys were: Fred Kuhnle, 227; J. U. Bird, 225; Wm. Reeves, 222, 202; H. Anderson, 201. Kuhnle and Bird received prizes last week.

SHE STOLE JEWELS FROM HER LANDLORD

Mrs. Julia Mayo is Now in the City Prison.

Charge Made That She Went Through a Room in the House.

WILL BE HEARD IN POLICE COURT.

Mrs. Julia Mayo, a middle aged woman, who says that her home is in Portland, was arrested yesterday by Detective Shorey on complaint of J. K. Haller, the proprietor of a lodging house at 72 San Pablo avenue.

The woman is accused of having stolen a purse containing $18.90, a watch and chain and a ribbon from a bureau drawer in a room occupied by Proprietor Haller.

According to facts in the hands of the police authorities, Mrs. Mayo engaged a room yesterday from Haller. Later she went to the room occupied by the proprietor and his wife to arrange for securing accommodations for her husband, whom she said was coming from Portland that evening.

While making the necessary arrangements Haller was called out of the room a moment by one of the lodgers. Returning in a few minutes, Haller was surprised to find Mrs. Mayo in the act of searching his bureau drawer. Seeing that she had been detected, the woman made an attempt to conceal her booty behind a lounge in the room, where it was found by Detective Shorey when summoned by Haller.

The woman denied the accusation in the Police Court this morning, but could not decide whether she would be tried by the Judge or by a jury, and the case was continued until tomorrow. The woman declares she has a husband and children in Portland and is traveling for her health, being afflicted with asthma. She says she has spent over $7,000 in search of a cure.

PRESIDENT CONTINUES TO BE CHEERFUL.

Wound is Dressed and all Danger is Passed.

Secretary Cortelyou Issues a Bulletin About the Case.

PROMINENT PHYSICIANS ARE IN ATTENDANCE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—After the President's physicians had dressed his wound this morning the following statement was prepared and issued by Secretary Cortelyou:

"The condition of the wound is satisfactory. The temperature this morning is normal. The patient slept well and at present is occupying a rolling chair. He is cheerful and from the beginning has shown neither impatience nor restlessness, but has carried out the directions of the physicians with scrupulous care. Since the use of the aspherating needle to evacuate the sac on the 22nd inst., which left no wound, there has been no operation until yesterday.

(Signed.)

"GEO. B. CORTELYOU, Secretary to the President.

11 a. m., Sept. 29, 1902."

Surgeon-General Rixey of the Navy, Surgeon-General O'Reilly of the Army, Dr. Schaffer, the bone specialist from New York, and Dr. Lung were present when the wound was dressed. They were at the White House about three-quarters of an hour. The slight rise in temperature noted yesterday before the second operation had disappeared this morning and this was considered especially favorable by the physicians.

The physicians insist today that the President's wound gives no occasion for alarm. The President himself continues cheerful and seemingly regards the wound as a trivial matter. The fact that a second operation was necessary evidently caused considerable apprehension in the public mind, as the number of callers who stopped at the temporary White House was larger than on any previous day since the President returned to Washington. A goodly number of telegrams also were received. To all, reassuring replies were sent.

Among the callers today only Governor Crane of Massachusetts, Secretary Root and Postmaster General Payne were admitted to the President's bedroom. Gov. Crane was with the President when the accident occurred at Pittsfield. His visit was a personal one, so it was said at the White House, and without political significance. Dr. Schaffer will remain here several days.

CAPTAIN DUTTON'S TALK.

The first of a series of lectures by Captain Dutton the noted temperance orator in East Oakland was given last last night before a large and attentive audience in the M. E. Church at Fifteenth street and Twenty-fourth avenue, and was highly appreciated by his hearers, many of whom were old temperance workers.

Theodore D. Kanouse the Grand Chief Templar of the State of California who had never met the Captain, came in just as the speaker arose and was an attentive listener through the entire discourse, and was liberal in his praise of the Captain's effort.

There will be an opportunity to hear Captain Dutton this evening at Pythian Hall, Twelfth and Franklin street at 8 o'clock sharp.

HAT OFF TO TILDEN'S MEMORY.

The Reverent Pilgrimage of a Stranger in Gramercy Park.

"I was sitting on my doorstep a few evenings ago," said a dweller in Gramercy Park, "when I saw a man stop in front of what is known as the Samuel J. Tilden house and remove his hat. After remaining uncovered for a few moments he passed on. A half hour later he returned, again removed his hat, looking at the building and went his way. A third time he returned, and did likewise. Prompted by curiosity, I asked him why he did it.

"'You will pardon a stranger,' he replied. 'I have never been in New York before. I live out in Nebraska. I was told when I came here that this was where Samuel J. Tilden formerly lived, and I am just paying my respects to the memory of the last real Democratic Presidential President I ever voted for, and I reckon from the way it looks I'll never have a chance to vote for another.'

"'And then,' he continued,' it is such a pleasant sensation to take off your hat now and then of your own accord. When I am at home and pass the home of another man whose name you might know if I should mention it, I generally hold my hat on with both hands to keep it from being blown off.'"—New York Sun.

THE SOUTH RISES TO DR. GEORGE C. PARDEE.

Senator Perkins Will Speak on National Questions at Washington Hall—Mission San Jose Republicans Meet Tonight.

Dr. Pardee's reception at Los Angeles was a tremendous ovation. The great demonstration at Hazard's Pavilion Saturday night was a culmination of the triumphal progress he has made through the Southern counties. Through the whole community there ran the electric thrill that evidences intense enthusiasm.

This was shown by the assembling of fully five thousand persons in the pavilion to hear and see the Republican candidate. It was a magnificent gathering that cheered the candidate to the echo. This huge meeting presages that Los Angeles will roll up an enormous majority for Alameda's favorite son next November. Senator Bulla places it as high as 7,500.

Dr. Pardee addressed a large meeting in Pomona this morning, and spoke again at Redlands this afternoon. Tonight he will address a big meeting in San Bernardino.

Further dates fixed for Dr. Pardee are:

Saturday, October 4th—San Francisco.

Monday, October 6th—Marysville.

Tuesday, October 7th—(Evening) Oroville.

Wednesday, October 8th—Red Bluff.

It has been arranged by the County Committee primarily for the Gubernatorial and legislative candidates, and Senator Perkins will present the national side of the campaign and the bearing the election in this State will have on the policy of the Administration.

State Senator G. R. Lukens will deliver an address more local in character, principally dealing with Dr. Pardee's candidacy.

Hon. Clinton G. Dodge will act as chairman, and will deliver a short speech urging harmony and united action. Campaign songs and fireworks will enliven the proceedings.

Altogether the Republican Gibraltar seems getting ready to make things hum in a political way.

Real Swell Ideas in Our Ready-to-Wear Department

No previous season has been ushered in with such a great variety of IDEAS to select from, and reasonably enough where manufacturers are trying to outdo each other in their eagerness to show the greatest number of styles, there are some more desirable than others. Of course, at Abrahamson's you will only find the real swell things, the styles that are right in every detail. Fashionable Oakland expects us to show the most extensive lines of Novelties and Exclusive Creations. We assure you that we appreciate what it means to be the leading style store of Oak and, and cannot impress upon you too strongly that you will not be disappointed. Our showing of Ladies' High-class Ready-o-Wear CARMENTS is as complete and stylish as the world's greatest designers can make it, as their cleverest ideas are embodied in the styles we show. We have the best we could get, so it would be useless to try to find a better assortment in the State of California.

WHAT DAME FASHION SAYS ABOUT TRIMMINGS

Her mandates this season encourage the more liberal use of LACE, BANDS, MOTIFS, GALLOONS, etc. for costume trimming. For example the present style of BROAD SLEEVES below the elbow, in conjunction with the vogue of soft materials, admits of applications and excrustations of pretty trimmings of all styles.

As usual we are prepared to meet every want. Our stock is superb, making a showing which would be hard to beat on the entire Coast, and certainly not in Oakland.

IN THE POPULAR SILK DEPARTMENT

we are showing Fancy Silks, embracing Moire Velours, Checks, Stripes and Plaids; also Taffetas in new combinations, which bid fair to be very popular this season.

ALL THE MOST POPULAR NEW DRESS GOODS — ATTRACTIVE FEATURES IN NEW MILLINERY—ALL THE NEW GLOVES ARE HERE —WE ARE QUOTING SPLENDID VALUES IN HOSIERY.

UNDERWEAR THIS WEEK UNDERPRICED

SUPERVISORS APPRECIATED BY HOME MERCHANTS.

Thanked for Ordering the Contra Costa Tunnel.

BIDS RECEIVED FOR DRUGS AND GRADING.

At the meting of the Board of Supervisors this morning all the members were present.

The report of R. H. Bonner, road foreman of Niles road district, was filed.

SUPPLIES.

A requisition from the County Infirmary for supplies was referred to the Hospital Committee.

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Applications for liquor licenses were referred to the License Committee as follows: M. Poncet, Mission San Jose; C. Delmue, Sunol; Eliss Brothers, Alvarado; A. Carlson, Jones street and San Leandro road.

Liquor licenses were granted as follows: John C. Lavin, San Lorenzo; Joseph Kubler, Mt. Eden; J. M. Pomes, Elmhurst; Charles Freeman, San Leandro road.

THE TUNNEL.

The resolutions adopted at the last meeting of the Merchants' Exchange regarding the tunnel to Contra Costa county were read. They returned thanks to the Supervisors for what they had done in furthering the project and pledged the Exchange to do all that it could in carrying out the work. The resolutions were filed.

BIDS FOR GRADING.

Bids for the grading and macadamizing of the Lake Chabot road were returned to the contractors without opening, because of an error in the advertisement. The published notice called for the bids at 10 o'clock, whereas the resolution adopted by the Board set the time at 11 o'clock. One bid was received before 10 o'clock and another was received after 10 o'clock but before 11 o'clock. The former bid was that of E. B. and A. L. Stone and the latter of R. M. Clement.

A. L. Stone said that he would not accept the contract if his bid should be the lower one, owing to the mistake in the advertising.

The work will be advertised for again.

OFFER MADE.

E. B. and A. L. Stone offered to macadamize the road between Mt. Eden and Haywards and the road from Mt. Eden to Petermann's landing for $1,995.

The offer was referred to the County Expert.

Bids for the building of a bulkhead on Sausal Creek, Fruitvale avenue, were received as follows: A. W. Burrill, $2,960; Cotton Brothers & Co., $2,990; Robert Wakefield, $3,145; Hyde Construction Company, $3,640.

The bids were referred to the County Expert.

DRUG BIDS.

Bids for drugs for the County Infirmary were received from R. D. Walker, Osgood Brothers, and I. Tobriner. The offer of Walker was for $2,330.30.

A CONTRACT.

The contract for the macadamizing of the road from Mt. Eden to Haywards and Mt. Eden to Petermann's landing was awarded to E. B. and A. L. Stone.

The bids on the Fruitvale bulkhead and drugs were laid over for a week.

GRADING A ROAD.

The grading of the San Leandro road near Fitch street in Fitchburg was accepted.

The Board then adjourned for a week.

AFFAIRS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

PRESIDENT DAVID S. JORDAN WILL SPEAK BEFORE THE YOUNG MEN.

President David Starr Jordan is going to lecture at the Y. M. C. A.

The first address will be given Sunday afternoon, October 12th, at 3:15. The subject will be "What the Twentieth Century Asks of Young Men."

The young men of the association who are ambitious to serve on committees have been divided into three sections for social work. Each section has one of the secretaries in its working force. The plan is to have each section entertain one evening a month. Each group is to prepare its own program and is expected to keep its proceedings a secret until the time to "spring" them on an unsuspecting public. Many surprises are looked for.

The quota for the Boxing Club is complete and the first meeting of the club took place Monday evening. The boys are very enthusiastic over the prospects of the club.

The Entertainment Committee consisting of Messrs. R. H. Chamberlain, J. H. Stevens, A. E. Caldwell, C. J. Schuler and Wesley Adams, has completed its work in securing talent for this season's course of entertainments.

Great care has been exercised in the selection of talent—every number will be enjoyed. The variety of the entertainments is not the least point to be considered.

The following is the arrangement:

Madam Genevra Johnstone-Bishop Friday, November 21, 1902.

Liquid Air, Friday, December 5, 1902. Lecture and demonstration using ten gallons of liquid air.

Eugene Cowles, Thursday, January 1, 1903.

Euterpean Male Quartette, Friday, January 30, 1903.

Dr. Robert McIntyre, Friday, February, 20, 1903. Subject, "Buttoned Up People."

Dr. Robert Nourse, Friday, March 13, 1903. The greatest platform orator in the world. Subject, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

Edmund Vance Cook, Friday, April 3, 1903. Cleveland's poet and humorist in selections from his own writing, "Potluck with a Poet."

Dr. Lyman B. Sperry, Friday, April 17, 1903.

Imperial Bell Ringers, Friday, May 8, 1903.

Robert J. Burdett, Friday, May 15, 1903. Subject, "The Woman with the Broom."

VISITORS' DAY AT FABIOLA HOSPITAL

The ladies of Fabiola Hospital have issued the following notice:

"Visitors' Day at Fabiola—You are cordially invited to attend the opening of the new bath department of the Fabiola Hospital, Friday, October 3, 1902, from 10 until 5 o'clock, corner Moss avenue and New Broadway.

"This department is now thoroughly equipped with the very latest and most advanced therapeutic appliances, including electricity applied in all forms, massage, and the bath of the electric lights.

"Skilled attendants will explain the methods of using the several baths, and the ladies of the association will be in attendance and extend to you a hearty welcome.

"This same day will be Donation Day for 1902, at the hospital—and the ladies of the association will be grateful, as always, for every act and gift enabling them to sustain the good work and good name of the Fabiola. But without regard to donations, you are cordially invited to come, bringing any friends you may wish.

SUNOL PEOPLE WELCOME THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

Cogent Reasons Given Why the Party of Lincoln and M'Kinley Should be Retained in Power—Speeches Made by County Candidates.

Last Saturday night the Republican candidates were given a royal reception by the citizens of Sunol and the residents of the immediate vicinity. The enthusiasm with which the preparations for the meeting were made was great and extended to the neighboring towns. A delegation from Pleasanton and the brass band of that place were in attendance. The usual bon-fire and fireworks display were employed to advertise the meeting. The hall was packed with attentive listeners, who frequently interrupted the orators with applause.

The musical numbers of he Elks' quartet as well as the selections rendered by the Pleasanton band were highly appreciated and elicted their share of applause. Bert Swan and Charles Emhay had decorated the hall with patriotic colors, encluding a liberal display of bunting and a large American flag.

Deputy District Attorney William Harris, who was to have presided at the meeting, was unable to be present, owing to illness.

The meeting was called to order by Tony Schweer of Pleasanton. After a few remarks he requested Captain Ellis of Sunol to preside over the meeting.

JUDGE HALL.

Judge S. P. Hall was introduced by Captain Ellis and was received with applause. He said:

"I am under many obligations to the voters of this county. On the four occasions which I have gone before the people they have treated me with unusual grace. Whether I am voted up or down at the coming lection I will always remember the favors conferred upon me particularly by the people of Sunol.

"I wish to speak of my associate, Judge Greene, who owing to a slight indisposition, is not able to be present with you. He sent his regrets by me in not being able to be with you. There is little need of me to tell you of his qualification for his record on the bench is second to none in the State of California. To return him is but an act of justice, and the people will have served themselves well by so doing. (Applause.)

"There is a younger judicial officer (Melvin) to whom I wish also to call your attention. He is a young man but an able lawyer and a just Judge. (Applause.)

"As for myself, I will say that I believe that I have a good job and I wish to retain it. To that end I solicit your votes and support." (Applause.)

JUDGE MELVIN.

Judge Henry A. Melvin was the next speaker. He was given a rousing cheer as he stepped forward. He said in part:

"Ladies and Gentlemen—You have no doubt been told already that this campaign is a local one, that it don't matter much whom you vote for as it has nothing to do with national policies. This is a mistake. The prosperity which has blessed the country for the last six years is the work of the Republican Party. (Applause.) If we would preserve that prosperity then we must do nothing which will cause the people of the United States to believe the beneficent rule of the Republican Party may give away to the soup-house policy that we have just gotten rid of. The State depends upon the county. The nation depends upon the State. It is our beholden duty to vote the ticket from top to bottom for that splendid citizen, George C. Pardee (Applause), for that sterling statesman, Victor Metcalf (applause), and for that profound thinker, United States Senator George C. Perkins (applause.)

"It is for the people to endorse or condemn the policy of protection and prosperity. Which will you do? Which party has served the country well? I leave the answer of the question to you, knowing that you will answer it rightly with your ballots. (Applause.)

"Before I resume my seat I wish to impress upon you the fact that you have two jurists on the bench of Alameda county who are an ornament to the State. I refer to Judges Hall and Greene. I ask you to support them. (Applause.)

JOHN ALLEN.

John J. Allen, District Attorney, was the next speaker. He was listened to with marked attention, his speech being frequently interrupted by applause. He said in part:

"About every two years the people of this country have a chance to expend their enthusiasm. This occasion occurs at about every election, and I am glad to see that the people of Sunol have caught up the real spirit of enthusiasm.

"The candidates who appear before you tonight are presented by the Republican party of Alameda county. We are not separate from the State or National party. We are an integral part of it. Inasmuch as we are an integral part we cannot be dis-associated in this campaign from the National issues. They are present and by voting for the Republican party you will be building for your future prosperity.

"For forty years the Republicans have been entrusted with the administration of National affairs. The party has been successful in its mission. The nation has enjoyed wonderful bursts of prosperity. Under which party have we prospered? There is only one answer to the question. When the nation has been in distress, the Republican party has always been called upon to come to the rescue of the people. The party has never failed to respond to the call.

"I do not want to speak harshly of the other parties. It is necessary that we should have opposition. It stimulates the activity of the party and brings that which is good to the front.

"I believe that the interests of liberty, progress and prosperity will be best served by voting the Republican ticket straight." (Applause.)

JOHN MITCHELL.

Supervisor Mitchell was the next speaker. He was well received. He said in part:

"We have come here to let the good people of Sunol see what kind of candidates the Republican party has placed upon the ticket. I believe you will agree with me when I state that they are a representative body of citizens. Each candidate is well supplied with qualifications to fill the offices which are aspired to.

"I take this occasion of thanking you in advance for the support that you will give to myself and the Republican party." (Applause.)

CORONER MEHRMANN.

Coroner H. B. Mehrmann, candidate for re-election to succeed himself, made an able speech and was roundly applauded. He said: "To appear before you is like coming home. Much of my life was spent in the neighboring town of Pleasanton, and I am personally acquainted with many of you.

"I hear there is only one party against us, and a portion of another. We ask you to consider well the candidates who are presented by the respective parties. We do not claim our candidates are holier than others, but we do claim to be equally talented, and that, in belonging to the Republican party we have a distinction which means much. From its achievements, I believe, the Republican party warrants the support of the voters from the top of the ticket to the bottom. The candidates before you belong to the party which has always come to the rescue of the country. When the clouds of adversity hung over the nation like a pall. Our party has always led the people out into the sunlight of prosperity. (Applause.)

"A few years ago a sentiment was formed so strong that it relegated the Republican party to the rear. The people wanted a change. They got it, and with it an array of free soup-houses. The voters then turned to the lamented William McKinley, and in his great wisdom he led them out of their difficulties. (Applause.) In a short time the dinner-pails, which were empty were full, and the soup-houses disappeared from the land, and the laboring man was again given an opportunity to get a good day's wages for eight hours work. (Applause.)

"Again I ask you to compare the candidates on our ticket with those on the opposition. We have Superior Judges who started in as messenger boys. We have with us men who started out in life as lathers, farmers, workmen and carpenters. Honest "Rob" Greig of Berkeley is a representative of the latter class." (Applause.)

J. CAL EWING.

J. Cal Ewing, candidate for County Auditor, then made a few remarks, which were well received: "John Mitchell told you," he said, "that he belonged to the third class speakers among the campaigners. Well, with the voice I now have I can with modesty claim to be in the fourth class, but I believe we will all agree that Coroner Mehrmann is in the first class. Gentlemen, I will ask you to support the Republican ticket from George C. Pardee to the Constable of your township." (Applause.)

O. L. ROGERS.

O. L. Rogers, candidate for Sheriff, was next called upon for a short speech. He said: "I have occupied the office of Sheriff for four years and have tried to faithfully discharge my duties. If elected again, I will promise to conduct the affairs of the office to the best of my ability. I trust you will not only vote for myself, but every candidate on the ticket."

JOHN P. COOK.

John P. Cook was the next speaker. He made a brief but effective speech. He spoke as follows:

"After having the eloquent speakers of the evening, I believe there is but little to say. I believe you all will vote the straight Republican ticket. As to myself, if I am elected to the office of County Clerk, I promise to conduct the office honestly and economically. You certainly can make no mistake by voting the straight Republican ticket." (Applause.)

ARTHUR FIEDLER.

Arthur Fiedler, candidate for County Treasurer, was next called in. He was given an enthusiastic reception. He said: "Something has been said as to the class in which the various speakers belong. When we started out we were all in one class, but before the campaign is over I am afraid I will find myself in the nineteenth class. But I want to say to the good people of Murray that whatever practical success has fallen to me has been due to them. Whether this fight results in victory or defeat for me, I will always remember the people of Murray."

JAMES BARBER.

James Barber, candidate for County Tax Collector, was also given an ovation. He said:

"My record is before the people. I believe it has been an honest record. It is fit and proper at this time for me to thank the people who have assisted me in the past. If elected again, I will try to merit your confidence and support. I believe the interest of the county, State and nation will be conserved by the election of the entire Republican ticket."

E. C. PRATHER.

E. C. Prather, candidate for County Surveyor, made a favorable impression. He said: "It has been the good fortune for Murray township to have one of its citizens as the County Surveyor for the last twenty-two years. If I am elected it will make it twenty-six years. I have been under the present incumbent for seventeen years, and believe I am competent to fill the office. If the voters believe so, I trust they will make their confidence in me apparent at the polls."

HARRY LYNCH.

Harry Lynch, the Republican nominee for Superintendent of Schools, made many friends. He said: "When I started out in this campaign, I had prepared an eloquent speech. After I delivered it once, a candidate told me it was 'rot.' Since then I have devoted myself to votegetting. I like the work. I am winning plenty of votes. I used to fish up here in Sunol when a boy. I am still fishing and hope you will support me."

ROBERT GREIG.

Robert Greig, the Berkeley candidate for County Recorder, was next presented, amid enthusiastic cheers. He said: "I would like to call the attention of the voters to one thing. The Labor party has apportioned all its offices to the city of Oakland. The Republican party has distributed them throughout the entire country. If for no other reason, the voters should support the entire county ticket. I believe they will."

GEORGE GRAY.

George Gray made a brief address. He was cheered lustily by the voters present. He urged the people to support the ticket from top to bottom.

JOHN J. MATTOS.

John J. Mattos, candidate for the Assembly, was also accorded a hearty welcome. He spoke briefly and was succeeded by Constable Larkin Locke, who ended the speech making.

Every one arose while "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung.

The meeting then adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS AT LOCAL THEATERS

SHIRLEY COMPANY AT MACDONOUGH AND WARD AT THE DEWEY.

James M. Ward the popular California actor, will appear this week in the leading part of "After Dark." He will be supported by the Stevens Stock Company, which leaves no doubt that this sensational melodrama will be presented with the strength that its many stirring incidents demand. Mr. Ward is personally directing this magnificent production, which will be presented along the same lines which characterized its brilliant success in San Francisco and other cities.

There will be eight new scenes in the piece, each of which will be an exact reproduction of those which were used in the setting of the piece in New York City. Mr. Ward appears in his great character of "Old Tom," in which he has no superior.

UNDER TWO FLAGS.

There is an irresistible charm about military life, and especially that in camp when upon active service, which makes popular all war stories. War has a romance of its own, and dramatic incidents follow one another with such rapidity that the possibilities for plays founded upon them are well nigh inexhaustible. Small wonder it is, then, that novelists and dramatists turn to this field to pick up material for their works.

"Under Two Flags" is a story of the French conquest of Algeria. This story differs from many of its kind for many reasons. First, it was, from beginning to end, a species of guerrila warfare, which was composed of a heterogeneous mass of humanity, having in its ranks ruined noblemen from all countries in Europe, soldiers of fortune, adventurers of all nations and the sweeping of the streets of every city in France.

These facts will be illustrated at the Macdonough Theater tonight, when the Shirley Company will appear in the great play, "Under Two Flags."

NOVELTY THEATER.

The second week of the Novelty Theater will open this evening, and there will no doubt be a repetition of the success of last week. The theater will be crowded, because the program will be one of unusual interest, as will appear from the following list, all of the performers in which will occupy the boards during the week: Miss Lois Mendenhall, premiere violinist; Harry Cogill and Mate Arlen, society sketch artists, direct from Australia; George Morey, king banjoist; Miss Agnes Harding, the sweet songstress, direct from the East; Robert Jones, slack wire walker; the two Starr sisters, Clara and Irene, in singing and dancing specialties.

FATHER PRAUGHT IS AT SACRED HEART

Rev. J. B. Praught, who for several years was the assistant pastor of Sacred Heart parish in this city, is back at his old post again. Father Praught, on graduation from St. Mary's Seminary at Baltimore, came to this coast and was assigned to Sacred Heart parish as the assistant to Father Serda. He remained at the post until last January, when he was transferred to San Rafael to fill the place made vacant by the transfer of Rev. Robert Sesnon to this side of the bay.

Dr. Sarah S. Whittlesey, who has been appointed instructor in economics at Wellesley, recently took her doctor's degree at Yale. Her thesis on the labor legislation of Massachusetts is a valuable contrubution to the literature on the subject.

SUPT. LEACH GOES EAST.

HE WILL VISIT AND INSPECT THE PHILADELPHIA MINT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Superintendent Frank A. Leach of the Mint left for the East this morning. He is going to the Philadelphia Mint to make a study of that institution. He will also likely talk with the authorities at Washington on the $30,000 shortage and the prosecution of Dimmick.

Mr. Leach says that the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, which furnished his bond and is responsible to the Government, will demand the money from him without regard to the question of Dimmick's guilt. The conviction of Dimmick would make no difference except that the bondsmen of the accused man would be responsible to the amount of $5,000, leaving $25,000 for Leach to pay. Mr. Leach intends to have the courts determine his liability and if compelled to pay the money he will ask Congress to reimburse him. In an interview yesterday he said:

"I have not discussed the matter of my bond with the officers of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland for several months. It does not matter to me, as far as the bond is concerned, whether Dimmick is found guilty or acquitted. The Fidelity Company will hold me responsible for the $30,000, and I must pay that amount to them when they demand it, which they have not done so far, and, as I understand, will not do until Dimmick's guilt or innocence is determined.

"As soon as Dimmick's trial is concluded and the Fidelity Company makes a demand on me for the money, I will ask the courts to determine if my bond covers the money which was stolen. If they decide that it does, I will have to pay the Fidelity Company the money. Of course, if Dimmick is found guilty, the Government will recover the amount of his bond, $5,000, and I will then only have to pay $25,000. If I have to pay the money, I will ask Congress to reimburse me for the amount.

"Immediately after the money was found to be missing the Government made a formal demand to the Fidelity Company. As soon as the case is settled, the company will have to pay the amount and I will have to settle with them. I am going East, but on other business."

DR. BAKER TALKS ON CREMATION.

PASTOR OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN DELIVERS A SERMON.

Rev. Ernest E. Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church preached last evening on "Cremation.' In part, last evening on "Cremation and Its Relation to the Resurrection." In part, he said:

"Like a great many modern things cremation is a revival of an ancient custom. So general was it in ancient times that it was accepted by all nations of antiquity except the nations who embalmed, the Chinese who buried in the earth and the Jews who buried in the sepulchre. It was thought best by brave teachers of sanitation all through the last century before it was put to practical purpose during the last few years. In 876 a conference was called at Dresden, Germany and since then there has been great interest in this form of disposing of the dead. In 884 it was made legal in England and since that time the custom has become more popular, prejudice has been removed and today the growing interest in cremation seems to prophecy that ultimately it will be very general if not universal.

"What affect does it have on the doctrine of the resurrection? I find that the principles that have prevailed in favor of burial have been largely matters of sentiment. The very fact that Jesus Christ Himself was tenderly taken from the cross and put into the tomb and rested three days before His resurrection has much to do with the feeling among Christians up to the present time. If we would permit ourselves to carry that idea further, we would attempt to reproduce the life of Christ literally, to wear His garments, to eat what He ate, to do what He did and in every way to reproduce His Jewish life. There is no real reason why the cremation of the dead should not be made universal. If you would let your imagination run into the history of the body after its burial as we shrink from the incineration, we would be appalled and shocked just as much if not more. The question that ought to determine it finally and is determining it now is the question as to the effect on the living of the present mode of it has nothing whatever to do with the effect of the body when it comes to resurrection, and I believe that it has nothing whatever to do with that for it is just as easy for the body to be resurrected after it has been burned as after being decomposed on the earth, it has nothing to do with the person buried, then it is a question solely of the living and the health, comfort, convenience and economy of the living, and the health, comfort, convenience and economy of the living, would lead me to say a word in favor of cremation. Taken apart from its religious significance I would not hesitate a moment if I had my own choice I would not hesitate a moment to express preference for cremation. Science seems to say that the body of the earth is earthly made up of material forms and of material elements and when it resolves itself finally whether by burning disintegration or decomposition. The Apostle Paul says "that there is a spiritual body just as certain as there is a natural body," that the soul liberated by death going into the spirit life finds it necessary to have an organ of expression, a spiritual body. Just as man here on earth is a union of body and spirit, so it will seem to be incomplete for him to be without a body in the other world and in order to be adjudged according to his entire life here, it seems necessary, if we want to be fair in the treatment of man that the entire man shall be found at last standing before the judgment seat in his entirety.

"Jesus Christ appeared in the body and thus I contend that we will have a body also—a spiritual body. If Jesus Christ needed a glorified body if His soul after it had gone through the experience of death needed to be clothed anew—shall we not safely conclude that we in turn shall not be found naked? There are questions as to whether the resurrection will be general and the answer in the Scriptures, Yes. All men shall be lifted up. This body temples a holy spirit and we should guard it as holy and keep it pure for the body participates in the destiny of man."

IMPROVEMENTS AT ELMHURST.

MAIN ROAD IS BEING MACADIMIZED NEAR FITCHBURG.

ELMHURST, Sept. 29.—The work of macadamizing the San Leandro road, between Fitch street and Highland avenue, is progressing quite rapidly, and it is expected that it will be completed within a few weeks. When this gap is finished there will be a distance of but a few blocks between Fruitvale and Haywards on the main road that is not macadamized.

This latest improvement for the district is largely due to the efforts of Supervisor Talcott, who has secured many valuable improvements for Elmhurst and the surrounding districts.

LEIGH H ROBBINS GOES TO SANITARIUM

Leigh H. Robbins has been taken to Dr. Robertson's sanitarium at Livermore. He is mentally unbalanced. Recently he was thrown from a buggy and injured on the head. He left the hospital and got along well until Wednesday evening, when unmistakable evidence of an affected mind developed. Twenty-four hours later his condition became such that physicians ordered him removed to the Robertson sanitarium at Livermore. His friends think Robbins' condition is in part due to a failure to strictly obey his physician's injunctions as to rest and quiet during convalescence.
